Toronto, Canada

I seek to develop smart, accessible, and poetic interior designs that respect and integrate into their context. My interests include sustainability, material innovation and emerging digital fabrication techniques.

EXPERIENCE

Ryerson University
Research Assistant
JUNE 2019 – PRESENT
TORONTO, ON.

As a Research Assistant to Linda Zhang, (Studio Pararaum, AIA, LEED GA, IDEC, ARIDO, RPAS) at the Ryerson School of Interior Design, I help to develop design research methodologies, and explore material design processes; casting, ceramics, parametric design, and robotics.

Palmerston Design
Intern
JAN 2019 – AUG 2019
TORONTO, ON.

Supported the design team with administrative work such as product research, pricing, design board layout, sample inventory management, and project management. Palmerston is a boutique interior design business specializing in residential and commercial spaces.

rdna design studio
Design Assistant
NOV 2018 – SEPT 2019
TORONTO, ON.

Provided graphic design, product research, email marketing, and other administrative work. rdna design studio is a boutique firm specializing in the procurement of high-end European furniture, lighting, rugs and art.

ParticipACTION
Marketing Specialist
MAY 2014 – JULY 2018
TORONTO, ON.

I developed and executed integrated marketing campaigns, secured digital partnerships, and much more in this role. This experience allows me to provide brand and website development consulting to clients such as David Nosella, Hjem Living, and rdna design. ParticipACTION is a national non-profit that promotes physical activity to Canadians.

EDUCATION

Ryerson University
2018 – PRESENT

I am on the Dean's List, in year three of four in the BID at RSID. I also serve as President of the Student's Course Union.

OCAD University
2017 – 2018

During my previous career, I pursued a Certificate in Digital Media Skills in OCAD's Continuing Studies department to improve my graphic design, animation and interactive media skills.

Dalhousie University
2006 – 2010

With an interest in communications, I completed a Bachelor of Arts with a double major in English Literature and History.
